EXPLORATIONS VI

1977-78

Explorations VI is a series of three concerts which aims to interest a wide range of listeners— those wishing to re-acquaint themselves with masterworks and those wishing for something out of the mainstream.

In each of this season's concerts a variety of styles and ensembles will be represented, providing an unique musical experience. during the concert season in Edmonton.

Compositions by the recognized masters such as Brahms, Wolf, Rachmaninov, and Stravinsky will be heard. Lesser known composers will also be represented, and Jazz will be featured on one program.

Musicians will include staff, students, and friends of the Department of Music, The University of Alberta.

Informal commentary will provide the listener with background on the music to be heard.

The first concert will take place Thursday, October 20, 1977 at 8:30 p.m. at the Provincial Museum and Archives Auditorium. This program will include Brahms' Variations on a Theme by Haydn for two pianos, a selection of Goethe Lieder by Wolf,
Beltine for unaccompanied violin by Allan Bell, and Suite for Five Winds by Walter Hartley.
